

INTERESTING CELEBRATIONS OF TKU' S BIRTHDAY BEGIN

The major activities celebrating TKU 54th birthday start at Tamsui campus and Langyang campus respectively on November 8 (next Monday) and 9. Activities include the ceremony of signing Nagasaki University (Japan) as TKU' s sister university, Sports Competition, exhibition of orchid, fair, charity sale for environmental protection and the second Egg-Roll Festival. Students have classes and staff punch cards on November 8 as usual.

As indicated by the school authority, TKU' s 55th birthday will be celebrated next year, as TKU formally proceeds to the fourth-wave development; therefore, more celebrations will be held. This year many interesting activities of celebration are still available to students, teachers and alumni.

First of all, “ Getting Dark: Sheng-xiang and Water 3” , a concert by TKU' s alumnus Lin Sheng-xiang, once winner of Golden Songs Award, will be held at Carrie Chang Music Hall at 7:30 p.m. this Friday. There will be a Taiwanese Koji Pottery exhibition at Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center, and an orchid exhibition at the Display Center at Business Management Building from November 7 to 9. In order for more alumni' s participation, alumni graduating 50, 40 and 30 years ago are invited to celebrate TKU' s birthday.

The best part comes on November 8, including the celebration ceremony at Student Center at 9 a.m., sports events, including relay contest, at the track-and-field ground, Association of Students' Egg-Roll Festival, charity sales and fair at University Commons and Poster Arcade, Freshman-

Cup basketball and volleyball finals, School Birthday concert, and ceremony of pillar-placing of Foreign Languages Building. The pillar-placing and bridge-naming ceremonies of the first-stage construction will be held at Lanyang Campus on November 9.

2010/09/27