

ARTICLES FROM TAMKANG REVIEW ARE ADOPTED IN TEXTBOOKS FOR AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES

According to a mail last Monday (April 18), San Diego State University inquired to use one article and accompanied photos from Tamkang Review, an international journal published by English Department, as a textbook material in the course, “Asian Traditions” to be open in the coming semester.

Mr. Joy Biernacki, the copyright agent of San Diego State University, requests to use one article by Hatakenaka Toshio, which appears at No.3, Vol.1, 1972.

English Department is pleased to approve the request with amazement, since it is very hard to find articles from an out-of-print back issue. (~ Chi-szu Chen)

2010/09/27