

VICE-PRESIDENT LU ADDRESSES THE ISSUE OF GLOBALIZATION AT TKU

As part of the Masters Lecture Series organized by the College of International Studies, the Vice-President of Taiwan, Lu Hsiu-lien, was invited to give a talk on the future of Taiwan under the impact of globalization at 10 am on April 12 at the Chueh Sheng International Conference Hall. There will be a discussion panel at the end of the lecture that invites all faculty members and students to participate. Anyone who is interested in Taiwan' s future in this fast-changing world is welcome to join. (~Ying-hsueh Hu)

2010/09/27