

DO IT FOR ART

As part of the celebration to the Foreign Language Week, the Russian Department put on a musical performance on March 29 in front of the Foreign Languages and Literatures Building. It was kicked off by Yen Zhi-hao, a senior of the Department who dressed up as the famous opera singer Vika Sichoska, who is known for his cross-dressing. No one was sure of Yen' s singing, but they certainly enjoyed his impersonation! The real singing came from Professor Kuo Hsin-Yi, of the Department, who sang the theme song from a movie.
