

66 FACULTY MEMBERS HONORED FOR EXCELLENT TEACHING

The names of the most outstanding teachers 2005 were announced last week with 66 professors made it to the list. (Details see below) According to a new regulation that was passed recently, each teacher on the list could be awarded with NT$ 20,000. An official ceremony celebrating this achievement is scheduled to be held at the end of the year.

This new regulation not only increased the prize money each professor collects, but also the number of professors that each college (including the Office of Physical Education) can recommend. The exact number may differ from college to college, as the quota is based on a particular ratio to the existing number of the faculty members at the college.
