

Physically Challenged, Musically Gifted

On the 3rd June, the TKU Overseas Chinese Student Guidance Section will hold a special concert. The concert will feature the musical genius of two physically challenged Taiwanese musicians, Liao Hao-Ting and Zhang Zhan-Yu. The former will perform an accordion solo; the latter, a vocal solo.

Ting-Hao, who is blind and has various physical disabilities, has memorized thousands of musical numbers, which he skillfully squeezes out of his accordion. Zhang Zhan-Yu, on the other hand, is the first person in Taiwan to take up street performance while suffering from a rare disease.

The concert will commence at 7pm at the Carrie Chang Concert Hall, TKU Tamsui Campus. TKU teachers and students are welcome to attend.

2011/06/07