

Discussing Gender Equality in Higher Education

On November 30, the TKU Committee for Gender Equality and the Center for Learning and Teaching will jointly hold a series of lectures on gender-based cultural education. The lectures will be delivered by National Taiwan University Associate Professor Lin Wei-hung and Aletheia University Associate Professor Liu Ya-lan on the topics ‘the design of gender-related courses in higher education’ and ‘the current status and future prospects of gender-based university courses and instruction’ .

In the afternoon, a seminar and informal discussion will be held by TKU faculty members. One of the hosts will be TKU Department of Chemistry Professor, Dr. Wu Chia-li, who noted that the seminar will give participants a chance to exchange experiences in the area of gender equality education.

2011/12/12