

20 Years of China Studies

This year, the TKU Graduate Institute of China Studies is celebrating its 20th anniversary. To mark this milestone, the institute held a large-scale “Graduate Institute Gathering” on June 3 at the Grand Hotel, Taipei.

The event was attended by around 230 guests, including the Chairman of the Love and Peace Foundation, Eric Teng; the Director-General of the ROC National Immigration Agency, Hsieh Li-Kung; the Chairman of the Taiwan Industrial Relations Society, Hong Chi-Chang; and the TKU Vice President for International Affairs, Dr. Wan-chin Tai. During the event, the President of Taiwan, Mr. Ma Ying-jeou, and Vice-president, Wu Den-yi, called to send their blessings and offer their congratulations.

Over 100 graduate institute alumni returned to join in the celebrations. Among them were the Hualien County Commissioner, Fu Kun-chi, and well-know media personality, Ma Hsi-Ping.
