

FILMS, DRAMA AND DANCING WELL PERFORMED AT FOREIGN LANGUAGE WEEK

Films, skits and dancing will be performed in the Foreign Language Week sponsored by College of Foreign Languages and Literature.

Different dancing of six nations has performed in front of Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center where the opening ceremony was held. The six-nation language teaching including exchanging greetings, saying hello, farewell and skits designed by students. In addition, there was an outdoor movie cinema showing classic movies from six different countries.

In the Poster Street were booths displaying cuisines, including German beer, red wine, French jam, French bread and Russian dishes. Several contests including beer drinking, watermelon cutting, sandwich eating, were also held.

2010/09/27