

PSC TO SPONSOR 5 O' SEAS STUDY TOURS THIS SUMMER

Public Services Center (PSC) is planning to organize five overseas study tours to learn language in the United States, the Great Britain, Japan, Germany and Australia this summer.

The proposed five tours are: English learning camps at California State University at Los Angeles and Berkeley, three English learning camps in England, a Hokkaido Japanese learning camp in Japan, an English learning camp at the University of New South Wales in Australia, a German study tour at Leipzig Univ.

It is worth mentioning that the "Tale of Two Cities" English study Camps in the Great Britain will be divided into three groups—Cambridge University/ University of Surrey, London group, Cambridge University/University of Edinburgh group and Oxford University/ Brunel University, London group. All participants are able to learn at 2 different universities. Besides, PSC is also planning to organize a German study Camp at Leipzig University in Germany.

The Hokkaido Japanese study tour will be an international camp with members coming from different countries. It will adopt a small class system. In addition to Japanese language, they will also learn Japanese tea arts, pottery, Kimono, paper-fold and calligraphy. Those who are interested in can reach B402 for brochure or by e-mail address at <http://www2.psc.tku.edu.tw/2002/index.jsp> for further information.

2010/09/27