

TKU Forms New Partnership with Huaqiao University

Huaqiao University, Fujian, China, has become TKU' s 36th Mainland Chinese sister university. Huaqiao was established in 1960. Then, in 1983, it was listed as one of China' s “key development” universities.

It has 26 colleges; 81 research institutes, graduate schools, and research centers; 3 first-level authorized PhD centers, and 18 second-level authorized PhD centers. It offers courses in 11 separate academic disciplines, including science, engineering, economics, management, law, art, philosophy, history, agriculture, education, and fine arts.

2013/03/25