

A New Partnership with Ewha Women' s University

On May 21, 2013, TKU signed an academic partnership with Ewha Women' s University, Korea. The signing meant that Ewha became TKU' s 123rd international partner university and its eighth partner university from Korea. The TKU Vice President for International Affairs, Dr. Wan-Chin Tai, explained that TKU' s goal in recent years has been to engage in interaction and exchange with its prestigious partner universities overseas. One such prestigious university is Ewha Women' s University. Ewha Women' s University is known internationally as one of Korea' s finest women' s universities, with many of its graduates going on to become successful, internationally-renowned luminaries.
