

Omelet Party on Hai Bao Street

On November 9th, the 63rd anniversary celebration for Tamkang University coincided with the yearly omelet party. This tasty event filled participants with warmth and joy, earning the title “Omelets for Sweethearts” .

The event took place at 11 o’ clock in the morning on Hai Bao Street and the University Commons. It was a passionate atmosphere that included dining, shopping and performances. A group of lovely girls started the show with an exotic dance. It was followed by the cheerleaders who raised the spirit of the crowd. Yi-lai Zhen and Fu-ru Deng soothed the audience with enchanting voices. At noon the bands known as MenliveN and The People of the Universe, performed songs with a quicker tempo, accelerating the pulses of spectators. The guitarist performance was magical and in closing, Bii, the half Chinese half Korean performer, sung a perfect performance. After all of the excitement, the raffle winner received a brand new smart phone. This event much like the omelets, was packed with an abundance of flavors.

2013/11/20