

The College of International Studies Travels to Japan

【Tamkang Times】Last month on April 25th Vice President of International Affairs and Dean of the College of International Studies, Wan-chin Tai lead an expedition with five professors to visit Tamkang University' s sister school, Doshisha University, in Japan for an academic conference. The conference was titled, "Asia' s New Position in the World" and took place at the same time as American President Obama arrived in Japan, so issues such as American security and Trans-pacific Partnership issues took precedence. Doshisha University' s Dean of the College of Law hosted the meeting as president of the university, Koji Murata, presented his dissertation.
