

Yudai Suzuki is Honored with Hanguang' s Special Achievement Award

【Reported by Yi-mei Chen, Tamkang Times】 First year student of Tamkang University' s Division of Continuing Education' s Chinese Language Program, Yudai Suzuki, participated in final competition of the 2014 Mandarin Speech Contest for Foreign Nationals on May 17th and was honored with the Hanguang' s Special Achievement Award. The event was sponsored by the Hanguang Education Foundation and Radio Taiwan International. Dean of the Chinese Language Center, Hsiang-hua Chou, stated, “For foreign internationals to obtain this award is no easy task. I have to give special thanks to Professor Yan-yu Lei for his contribution and excellent mentorship. And of course Yudai Suzuki deserves praise for the diligence put forth.” Yudai Suzuki expressed that receiving this award was a great honor and it will create a wonderful memory of Taiwan. He stated, “Without the assistance of my professors this definitely would not have been possible.”
