

Japanese Alumni Gang Chen Offers Services at Shihanhang Museum

【Reported by Yi-feng Lu, Tamkang Times】 Alumni from the Graduate Institute of Japanese Language, Gang Chen, began working in Bali' s Shihanhang Museum of Archeology last March. During his time there he has assisted with services in translation of children' s Japanese literature and even touring services, often times for Japanese visitors. He stated, “Even though I began learning a bit of Japanese when I was younger, I didn' t really have a systematic way of study until I came to Tamkang University. I' m very grateful for the language fundamentals I got during my time of study.”

Gang Chen made a special thanks to all of his teachers. He mentioned he is gaining lots of work experience and plans to one day do translating and editing for magazines.

2015/01/16

Alumni from the Graduate Institute of Japanese Language, Gang Chen, is working as a tour guide at the Shihanhang Museum of Archeology. (Photographed by Yi-feng Lu)