

TKU Alumni Jou-min Lin. Hui-hong Sheng and Jia-song Yan Take New Government Positions

【Reported by Yu-xuan Zhou, Tamkang Times】 Three Tamkang University alumni recently had the honor of taking positions at the County Government Office! Alumni of the Department of Architecture, Jou-min Lin, is now the Director of Taipei City Development, alumni of the Department of Transportation Management, Hui-hong Sheng, is the new Chairman of the Xinzhu Office of Traffic, and alumni of the Department of Mass Communication, Jia-song Yan is the new Senior Chief of Jia-yi City Cultural Affairs.

Jou-min Lin has received many awards for his architecture designs all around Taiwan. He stated, “Being an architect is really a state of mind and a dream that has always been a part of me.” Hui-hong Sheng stated, “Being able to have the support of the government while representing concerns of the people is a great responsibility. I hope to be able to improve public transportation and better organize the public sidewalks.” Jia-song Yan stated, “This achievement is the dream of every Jia-yi citizen and artist.”

2015/03/06