

Student Group Graduation

【Yi-ru Chen, Tamsui Campus Report】 On June 11th in the Shao-mo Memorial Gymnasium, the Extracurricular Activities Guidance Section held the first Student Organization Graduation Ceremony with close to 150 student group members. Director of the Extracurricular Activities Guidance, Su-kuan Chiang, expressed, “I’ m so glad to see all of the students come together for this event. It reminds me of the famous words of John Lennon, who said a dream you dream alone is only a dream, a dream you dream together is reality.”

As the event began, a documentary film was played, “Grown-up Diary” . Pictures of each group’ s graduating club leaders and organizers played in a sequence with warming and relaxing music. Then student club leaders shared touching words of their memories and experience at TKU. Event Organizer, Hui-rou Li, expressed, “This event officially says farewell to the old club leaders and welcomes the new leaders to take charge.”
