

Champion Incubator Center Signs Academic Industry Agreement

【Tamkang University】 On Jan. 9 the Champion Incubator Center went to the Taipei City Hall's Yuan Fu Restaurant to sign an agreement of collaboration. Director of the Champion Incubator Center, Jen-shiun Chiang, and Honorary Counselor of the Taipei Association of Small and Medium Enterprises, Yao-li Sung, acted as representatives for the signing, which was witnessed by Deputy Chief of the Taipei City Hall Enterprise Development, Xin-pei Wu, and Director of Ministry of Economic Affairs' Small and Medium Enterprise Administration, Chong-yuan Wen.

The agreement entails utilizing the internet for an academic-industry exchange, which will help promote enterprises while giving students related skills and necessary training. In addition, a network will also be developed as a platform for social media for enterprises. Jen-shiun Chiang expressed, "TKU is very versatile in terms of creating exchanges with enterprises and off-campus businesses. This is a great opportunity for us to work together and mutually increase our effectiveness in terms of education and promotion."
