

International Students Enjoy Dragon Boat Festival

The International and Mainland Guidance Section held the Dragon Boat Festival Dumpling activity on Jun. 7 that attracted nearly 500 international students. There were delicious dumplings being served that filled the air with a sweet aroma. Vice President of International Affairs, Wan-chin Tai, expressed, “The Dragon Boat Festival is an old tradition passed from China that still brings people happily together and I’ m so glad that the international students can be a part of it.” One of the event organizers and member of the International and Mainland Guidance Section, Chun-chi Liu, expressed, “This event is so invigorating, I hope that more international students will join us in the future.” (Article written by Shi-xun Zhao)
