

INTERNATIONAL FINE ARTS EXHIBITION ASIA UNVEILED

The Asian International Arts Exhibition in Taipei by Taiwanese painters opened last Monday at the Carrie Chang Fine Arts Museum by President Chang Horng-jinh. Seven participating painters were also present to sign autographs for art fans.

TKU' s artist in residence, Koo Chung-kuang, who is also one of the painters exhibiting, points out that those 23 invited painters span three generations of Taiwan' s art community. Their works demonstrate influences from various schools and styles, and are thus versatile and multifaceted, and this is the true spirit of Taiwan' s arts, he adds.

Apart from him, Lee Quan-pei, Liu Xian-zhong, Hsu Ming-fong, Liu Yang-jer, Hsieh Hon-tar and Pan Li-hung were the other six painters that attended the opening ceremony signing autographs and answering questions to students and faculty members.
