

An Exhibition of 26 Haitian Artists' Paintings Will Be Held at Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center on Upc

An exhibition entitled "Haitian Art Exhibition: A Dialogue between Primitive and Modern Times" will be held as of the upcoming Thursday (May 30) at Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center. The Center and Toronto Gallery are co-sponsors of this art show.

A total of 52 paintings---they are the "brain child" of 26 artists---will be exhibited in the Center.

The show is scheduled to end on June 30.

We can give a few examples of the Haitian artists' endeavors. For instance, Jackson Charlot's "Adam & Eve", Brunet Cayo's "Rites of Benediction", Claude Joachin's "Paradise in Some Sea Cove" and Mentor II's "Hope". Most of the paintings were done in heavy oil.
