

A Delegation from Nankai University Tianjin Visited TKU last Wednesday (Dec. 26)

A delegation led by Dr. Chen Yung-chuan, V.P., Nan Kai University and Prof. Hsieh Chao-hsiung, Foreign Affairs Advisor, visited Tamkang U. in the afternoon on Dec. 26 (last Wednesday). Pres. Chang Horng-jinh had given a dinner party in Kuan Hai Tan in honor of our mainland visitors. Dr. Feng Chao-kang, V.P. for Academic Affairs, was also at the scene. Another V.P. of Nan Kai U., Dr. Chiang Chin-chu, had already visited us in past June. This should be their second visit to TKU.

Dr. Hsieh happened to be the classmate of Dr. Wei Wou, Dean, College of International Affairs.

In the short briefing between host and guests, Dr. Wei Wou, Dr. Lily Chen Huei-mei, Director, International Exchanges & International Education, Dr. Pong Wei-faung, Chair, Department of Physics and Dr. Kau Chin-mei, Chair, Department of Mathematics, were also present, and they exchanged their views on the issues of mutual academic exchange as well as the relationship between both sides of the Taiwan Strait.

Prof. Chen Jung-chuan commended highly the Three Objectives espoused by TKU. Dr. Hsieh said in point-blank fashion that their school expects to exercise more practical exchange programs with TKU.

After the briefing, the delegation toured around TKU campus and escorted by Prof. Huang Hung-chu, Director of Chueh Sheng Memorial Library and Mr.

Chang Ping-huang, Deputy Director, Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center, they had visited Chueh Sheng Memorial Library and Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center. They also made so many complimentary comments.
