

Dr. Patricia Tolmie Is Scheduled to Give Four Lectures on English Learning in TKU

A series of lectures sponsored by the English Department, TKU, is scheduled to take place between December 10 and 11. Dr. Patricia Tolmie, famed scholar on English Teaching, Winona State University, USA, also a sister school of TKU, has been scheduled to give 3 featured lectures, plus a discussion on a special topic. Following are the particulars: the time, the place and the topic of this special event:

On December 10 (Mon.), 10:10–12:00 noon

Topic: “Learning Strategies for Pre-Reading”

Place: International Conference Room, Ching-sheng Memorial Hall

Same day, 2:10–4:00 P.M.

Topic: “Learning Strategies for Reader-Text Interaction”

Place: Same

On December 11(Teu.), 2:10–4:00 P.M.

Topic: “Learning Strategies for Post-Reading”

Place: Same

Same Day, 10:00-12:00 noon

Dr. Tolmie will hold a discussion on a special topic: "Teaching Remedial Reading and Strategies Employed by EFL Students"

Place: Room T701, Ching-sheng Memorial Hall

Dr. Tolmie will also schedule a special hearing with TKU students who are interested in going abroad to continue their studies.

Time: December 11, 5:00-6:00 P.M.

For TKU English juniors, please come forward to English Department to reserve a seat, just in case.

Place: Same

2010/09/27