

The Tamkang University' s Summer Camp for Training Young

The T.K.U.' s Summer Camp for Training Young Journalists was concluded successfully on September 23rd. Pres. Chang Horng-Jinh was present at the Opening ceremony. He had delivered personal advices to the students. He said that a good newspaper man/woman should know better not to be influenced by the biased standard of the newspaper he/she serves, and "fair-play" is the motto he/she should keep in mind. Dr. Flora C.I. Chang' s advice of "doing right things" and "doing things right" was at once witty and instructive, and many trainees of the Camp were benefited by her counseling advice.

A host of seasoned journalists had served on the board of instructors, and the names of the media include the much talked-about tabloid weekly "Next Magazine" , "The United Daily" and "China Times Evening News" , etc.

2010/09/27