Alumni extended their congratulations to the outstanding senior alumni who received this recognition.

The Alumni Association member conference this year was organized by the Alumni Association in Taichung, and will be hosted by the Alumni Association in Kaohsiung next year. Lawrence Lin stated that since our university's founding, the number of alumni has exceeded 300,000, and they have excelled in various fields, spreading to every corner of the world. The incoming President, Tsang-Jiang Chen, who was previously Vice President, has extensive experience and a wide network. He expressed his gratitude for the strong support and entrusted responsibility from alumni across the globe. Bringing together over 300,000 alumni worldwide is a significant task, and he hopes that senior alumni will continue to offer their strong support to perpetuate the enduring spirit of Tamkang. The 2 days of alumni activities were lively. Everyone in blue uniforms, creating a family-like atmosphere, engaged in friendly interactions, singing and celebrating on stage, with laughter and songs echoing throughout the event. Alumni continuously captured beautiful memories through photography.
