

Four Scholars from College of Foreign Languages & Literature Will Be on Their Way to Czechoslovak to

英文電子報

An international symposium on the subject of “Minorities in a Globalizing World: Opportunity or Risk?” will be held this upcoming Saturday (June 1) at Czech Science College, Prague, Czechoslovak.

Center for the Study of Globalization and Cultural Differences, TKU, will be the co-sponsor of this symposium.

Scheduled to read papers on the meeting are: Prof. Reinhard Duessel, Director of the Center, Prof. Liang Ching-feng and Prof. Herbert Hanreich from Department of German; Prof. Chou Chung-ke, Institute of European Studies, Dr.. Milos Havelka, Director, Institute of Sociology, Charles University, Prague, Czechoslovak and Dr. Thomas Poiss, Classic Language Studies, Humboldt University, Germany.

The meeting will be conducted in German.

2010/09/27